

Allowing commercial radio to use its influence to restrict satellite radio would be the same as allowing the major TV networks to restrict cable/satellite TV.

I pay extra for satellite radio because of the variety and lack of commercials. I pay extra for my cable programming for the same reason.

Let's send a message to Clear Channel to spend their energies and monies improving commercial radio and leave satellite radio alone.

Thank you for listening.